KILBARRON CHURCH 200 CELEBRATIONS:

SUNDAY. JUNE 15th - 2pm. BI-Centenary Mass celebrated by Bishop Kieran Followed by BBQ and musical entertainment from 3.30pm to 6pm in the village.

'The people of Kilbarron built this church two hundred years ago. It was a time of dire economic conditions. They made huge sacrifices to build this church – 'Teach Dé agus Teach an Phobail' – 'The house of God, the house of the people.'

It has served our forebears for generations, through times of 'The Great Famine' through times of hunger, fever, misery and death. Numerous and memorable joyous occasions have occurred within its hallowed walls.

Please God, it will serve the people of future generations for another two hundred years.'

We extend a warm welcome to all who join us this weekend for our special celebration.
