Mary, friend to the poor.

Mary experienced uncertainty and insecurity when she said 'yes' to the angel.

She knew what oppression was when she couldn't find a room in which to give birth to Jesus.

She lived as a refugee in a strange land.

She knew the pain of having a child who does not follow the accepted path.

She knew the loneliness of the widow, the agony of seeing her only Son executed.

She is the friend of all the poor and oppressed women of our times.

She gives hope to those who struggle for justice, and challenges us all to live a simple life, a life of unconditional trust in God.
